THE SHIP SUBSIDY BILL. COMPLETED AS DIRECTED BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE. The Sherman Anti-Trust Law Is Specifically Declared to Be Applicable to the Builder or Owner of Any Vessel Entitled to Compensation Under the Bill.

Washington, March 17 .- The Ship Subsidy bill has finally been completed by the sub-committee of the House Committee on Merchant | They were met at the station by an assistant Marine and Fisheries, which was to draft the sergeant-at-arms, who escorted them to the in accordance with the action of the committee several days ago. Several of its provisions are new and interesting, especially the can Senators who have been anxious for the anti-trust provisions. The bill is expected to be adopted by the committee without alteration, further than perhaps slight changes in verbiage. Representative Grosvenor, Chairman of the committee, who has been ill for a Senator for being absent without leave was week, is expected to be out on Monday, and the bill may be reported next week. The antitrust provisions are as follows:

Section 24. That the act of July 2, 1890, entitled "An Act to Protect Trade and Commerce against Unlawful Restraints and Monopolies," is hereby specifically declared to be applicable. in addition to its other applications, to the transportation within the intent of Section 6 | He said:
